Tucker's Point Golf Club

CHAMPIONSHIP RESORT GOLF COURSE

The challenging and scenic 18-hole, par-70 Tucker's Point Golf Course was originally designed in 1932 by Charles H. Banks and enhanced in 2002 by Roger Rulewich, the former chief designer for Robert Trent Jones. Now, it's even better, offering meticulous grooming for the ultimate in playability, upgraded maintenance equipment and brand-new golf carts. Traverse undulating fairways with elevated tees, while coping with the varying speed and direction of changeable winds. Take in dramatic water and overland views from multiple holes. Greens feature TifEagle, a Bermuda-grass hybrid that makes for a quick putting surface, while a practice facility includes a driving range, a 10,000-square-foot practice putting green, and a short-game area.

LONDON under 7 hrs

Bermuda is located in the North Atlantic Ocean about 600 nautical miles from the U.S. East Coast and just a 90-minute flight from New York City. Major East Coast hubs including Atlanta, Boston and Toronto can be reached in three hours or less, while nonstop service to London connects the island to the heart of the U.K., perfect for onward connections throughout Europe. Once you arrive, getting around is simple, too – the island is 21-square-miles, so no matter where you're staying, you're never far from the airport or major attractions. Explore by foot, bike, or rent an electric vehicle to zip around the island. Prefer to let someone else do the driving? Cabs, buses, and ferries are all readily available.
