Luxury keepsake

LE BRISTOL PARIS has become the latest luxury hotel to launch a ready-to-wear collection, giving guests the chance to keep up chic appearances long after their stay. Products donning the hotel's crest range from cotton poplin t-shirts to embroidered caps, luxe sportswear, printed sweaters and silk pyjamas. The collection is exclusively available at the hotel's boutique on Rue du Faubourg Saint Honoré, with prices starting from €75.

TIME OUT

Our pick of events taking place around the world

DOMESTIC: BFI LONDON FILM FESTIVAL, 9-20 OCTOBER, UK-WIDE

Film fanatics, this one's for you. The 68th edition of the world-class film festival in partnership with American Express takes place at its home hub BFI Southbank, along with partner cinemas in London's West End and venues across the UK. The festival kicks off with the world premiere of Sir Steve McQueen's Second World War drama Blitz, starring Saoirse Ronan, and will close with the UK premiere of Piece by Piece, a LEGO animated look at the life and work of Pharrell Williams.

SHORT-HAUL: MONET AND THE IMPRESSIONIST CITYSCAPE, BERLIN, UNTIL 26 JANUARY, 2025

Berlin's Alte Nationalgalerie is hosting an exhibition dedicated to Claude Monet's three earliest paintings of Paris in 1867. Saint Germain l'Auxerrois, Jardin de l'Infante and the Quai du Louvre (pictured) are considered the first Impressionist cityscapes. The exhibition also investigates the mark Monet had on fellow Impressionist painters' depictions of the modern city - from Gustave Caillebotte to Henri Matisse. Tickets from €14.

LONG-HAUL: BERMUDA ART MONTH, 1-31 OCTOBER

This month-long celebration across the island returns for its second year, showcasing local artists, galleries and cultural institutions. Expect markets, exhibitions, panel discussions and beachfront workshops - including a 'Sip & Paint' event led by a local artist in the Grotto Bay Caves, and a tour of Hamilton's artwork by the town crier.
